FRUIT OF THE UPAS TREE.—We have published, says the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, at various times letters from well-informed gentlemen in the Southern States, alluding to the mischievous teachings of strolling radical lecturers and agents, among the negroes. It is possible that there may have been persons so fixed in their admiration of everybody and everything bearing the name "radical," as to attribute those assertions to the malevolence of unscrupulous rebels! We have all along been confident that the statements were perfectly reliable, and were made more in sorrow than in anger, and by those who were much more truly the friends of the freedmen than the colporteurs and peddlers who claimed to represent Northern societies and Northern sentiment. We now observe, in the report of Gen. Gillem, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Mississippi, a confirmation of the statements to which we allude.

There seems to be a wide-spread belief, which is daily increasing among the freedmen, that the land in this State is to be divided and distributed among them, and in some sections of the State, this illusion is assuming a practical form for the freedmen refusing to contract for the next year, or to leave the premises they have cultivated this year. It is to be feared that this course, induced by evil disposed advisers, may lead to collisions, the extent and result of which it is difficult to surmise.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS.—A young man of our acquaintance made the following entry in his diary, on the 31st day of December, 1865.—
Our young friends would do well to begin the New Year, which will soon dawn upon us, with similar resolutions of abstinence and amendment:

"Dec. 31st, 1865, 12 P. M.—I have already made many resolutions, which commit me to a leave taking of nearly all outwardly bad practices. I can therefore only resolve for the New Year to study more earnestly my duty and to invoke renewed strength to discharge it; also to acknowledge the source from which alone I can receive beneficence, and to render continuous gratitude for the favors which I enjoy.
To which end I desire to receive such help as may encourage and sustain me."
The young man who formed in his mind these good resolutions and worthy purposes, fell far short of the standard of duty and conduct which he raised for himself. But the effort to be good and do right was not without some beneficial influence upon his mind and heart. We recommend everybody, therefore, to adopt his resolutions, and live in accordance with them; so that the year may pass in peace, and bring with its ending a crown of joy and blessing.—Lynchburg Republican.

PROFIT OUT OF MISFORTUNE.—The following, from the Savannah Republican, tells its own story:

"HINESVILLE, LIBERTY COUNTY, GA., Dec. 10.—A sale has taken place at this county seat that so well marks the extreme depression in the money market that I send you the particulars. Col. Quarterman, of this county, deceased, and his executor, Judge Reatter, was compelled to close the estate. The property was advertised, as required by law, and on last court day it was sold. A handsome residence at Walchouville, with ten acres attached, out-houses and all the necessary appendages of a first-class planter's residence, were sold for sixty dollars. The purchaser was the agent of the freedmen's bureau! His plantation, four hundred and fifty acres of prime land, brought one hundred and fifty dollars; sold to a Mr. Fraser. Sixty-six acres of other land, near Walchouville, brought three dollars; purchaser, Mr. W. D. Bacon. These were all bona fide sales. It was court day, and a large concourse of people were present."

VALUE OF NETTLES.—Nettles have long been misunderstood, but their day is coming at last. More than one people have suspected that a certain grave, ruminative, long-eared, animal, knew more than he got credit for, and now we find out that he does. Had men known as much long ago, it would have been better for them. Mr. Xavier Garenne has discovered that it is the landes in the South and the waste spaces in the rest of France were sowed and planted with nettles, they would be converted into green and productive fields. He is astonished to see the world so blind to the virtues of this hardy plant, which, it seems, will grow everywhere. Raise nettles and their young tops furnish a delicious, early vegetable, and abundance of green fodder for cattle whose beet and milk will be greatly improved by the diet. Nettles are remarkably efficacious in restoring broken down horses, and might, therefore, apply to hawks of all kinds. It is not the external application of the nettle that is here meant. They have too, great commercial value, and may be treated as hemp and spun into lines and ropes woven into cloth.

CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES.—Last week we expressed our thanks for the big box from San Jose. This week we received a long box from Russian River. On opening it, we found—well, listen and we will tell you what we found. First, a lot of sweet potatoes, one of which was a yard long! Second, a beautiful lot of pop-corn, the sight of which made the young "Spectators," eyes sparkle with delight. Third, huge ears of Indian corn, the sight of which gave us such a home feeling that we fondled them like old friends. Fourth, some Irish potatoes, which, but for their color, might have been mistaken for small pumpkins! We challenge the State.
P. S.—We have the long potato to show to our friends, lest they should think we are "drawing a long bow." The others don't keep well with us. We like them.—California Spectator, Nov. 22.
